IT'S ANYONE'S RACE.

Vice Presidential Stakes Keep Them All A-Guessing.

NO ONE HAS A HUNCH AS YET.

It May Be Either Hill, Towne or Sulzer, and Then Again It May Not.

A LARGE FIELD TO SELECT FROM.

Former Senator Hill's Visit to Colonel Bryan Sets the Tongues of the Wise Ones to Wagging—Speculation as to Composition of the Platform.

Kansas City, July 2. — The Democratic vice presidential nomination is still for anybody—that is, anybody who can reach it. Here is a list to choose from: William Sulzer, David B. Hill, Elliott Danforth, Judge A. B. Parker of New York; Benjamin F. Shively, Indiana; Charles A. Towne, Minnesota; Carter H. Harrison, Illinois; Benton McMillin, Tennessee; James Hamilton Lewis, Washington; Robert A. Pattison, Pennsylvania; Arthur P. Gorman, Maryland; D. J. Campau, Michigan; David S. Rose, Wisconsin; David Overmeyer, Kansas; William J. Stone, Missouri; George Fred Williams, Massachusetts. There may be some others, but these are "mentioned." Some are avowed candidates and others are not, and some do not even expect to be presented to the convention.

The active candidates are Sulzer and Towne. Others expect a complimentary vote, but both of these gentlemen want the nomination and their friends are working for them with much earnestness. Friends of Shively are also pressing him, but the Indiana man is discouraging them. Shively has his eye on a seat in the senate, which is more attractive to him than a nomination for the vice presidency. He does not care to offend his Indiana friends by being churlish regarding the vice presidency. But he is doing what he can to discourage the talk about himself. The friends of Towne say Shively is not and will not be a candidate. Another man who is strongly mentioned is Carter H. Harrison of Chicago. Illinois men say he prevented the state convention from naming him for governor or instructing for him for vice president. It is expected he will come here and make it plain that he does not wish to be a candidate.

Quite an interesting and unknown quantity is the suggestion about ex-Senator Hill. He seems to have much strength in different parts of the country, and several delegations intend to vote for him.

"Towne is the logical candidate," remarked Senator Pettigrew, "and that is why he is going to be nominated. Nebraska is going to second his nomination and support him," he continued, "and that ought to be a sufficient indication as to the way Bryan feels toward him. Minnesota and South Dakota are instructed for Towne, and delegates from other states are for him."

George Fred Williams is working quietly to secure support for him in New England. "We ought to have a man for vice president who will carry out Mr. Bryan's views," said Mr. Williams, "should anything happen to Mr. Bryan after he is elected." In looking over the field Mr. Williams thought Mr. Towne came nearer the ideal candidate than any man yet mentioned, although he was not ready to say that Massachusetts would vote for him.

The fact that so many names have been suggested and that so many delegates are casting about for a candidate indicates the nebulous state of the vice presidential situation. It may clear up and some one be agreed upon before the convention, but the present indications are that the contest will be determined by ballot in the convention.

The contractors confidently assert that they will be ready to turn over the convention hall to the national committee Tuesday night. The hall will be opened to the public on that night, when a drill will be the entertainment. All opera chairs for spectators are in place except in the southwest corner, where the inclines are being adjusted. Work of decoration is being pushed.

Three of the delegates-at-large from Indiana—James Murdock, G. V. Menzie and Hugh Dougherty—called on Richard Croker to propose an alliance offensive and defensive between the states of Indiana and New York. The Indiana men reported to the leaders of Tammany that the states of Indiana and New York had gone the same way at national elections and were always on the winning side. They then made the proposition to him that in all matters pertaining to the present convention the states should stand together and take united action. The proposal is said to have pleased Mr. Croker, and he told the Indiana men that he was glad to hear the proposition from them, and would be glad to take it under advisement.

Mr. Bryan's position in regard to the platform, as outlined by those close in touch with him, is this: He holds that the popularity of the Democratic ticket in 1896 was due very largely to the positive position taken on the silver question, and that to take a backward stand at this time would be an evidence of faltering and would weaken the ticket in its own strongholds without strengthening it where there is no hope of winning. He even goes so far as to say that he regards the platform of more importance than the ticket. He thinks also that if he should take any other position he would be accused of vacillation.

For the rest, the resolutions will denounce the gold standard and the Porto Rican legislation of the last session of congress. It will condemn trusts in unmeasured terms and at the same time accuse the Republican party of fostering and maintaining them. The administration will also come in for strong censure for its policy in the Philippines, and it will be recommended that the Philippine archipelago be placed upon the same footing as Cuba. In the same connection there will be planks denouncing militarism and imperialism, and there will also be planks on the income tax, good roads, civil service, pensions, etc., and a strong resolution of sympathy with the Boers.

Delegation Gossip.

Richard Croker, Dr. Cosby, Health Commissioner of New York city; Former Senator Murphy, Andrew Freedman and other leaders of Tammany Hall, were the first of the New York delegation to appear. Mr. Croker and Mr. Murphy, however, visited the convention hall. Neither would talk on politics.

"Tammany rather favors the nomination for the vice presidency of a man from some close western state, say Ohio or Indiana," said Dr. Cosby. "But whoever the convention in its wisdom sees fit to nominate will receive loyal support and we will expect to win with him. Ben Shively of Indiana would make a first-class man. But any one, so long as he is a good Democrat."

"Senator Hill, for instance?"

"Yes, Senator Hill. I know these are Mr. Croker's sentiments. The platform as adopted by the convention will be our platform."

Elliott Danforth of New York was one of the early callers at the apartments of Former Governor Hill. He did not see Mr. Hill as the latter had already left for Lincoln. "In the ordinary conception of the term," said Mr. Danforth, "I am not a candidate for the vice presidency or for any other office. I should be proud to be a candidate for vice president on the ticket with Mr. Bryan, but I am not seeking the nomination and shall not, believing that the convention will do that which is wisest and best."

The Wisconsin delegation, headed by Mayor David S. Rose of Milwaukee and J. M. Clancy of Madison, who holds National Committeeman Wall's proxy, is here. Mayor Rose was non-committal on the question of the vice presidential nomination. "We want a man who can carry New York against Governor Roosevelt," said Mr. Clancy. "Hill can do that. He will bring more votes to the ticket than any man we can put up, and I believe he will be nominated. There is a very strong sentiment in his favor among the Wisconsin delegation with whom I have talked, and I believe there will be a regular Roosevelt boom developed for Hill before the convention is called to order."

The Pennsylvania delegation, 100 strong, and under the leadership of Colonel James M. Guffey, is here. One of the delegates-at-large is ex-Governor Robert E. Pattison, who has been spoken of as a possible vice presidential candidate. The delegation, however, favors David B. Hill, and unless the situation changes greatly the 64 votes of the Pennsylvania delegation will go to the New Yorker.

Among the late arrivals were L. Rossing and T. D. O'Brien, both delegates-at-large of Minnesota. They are simply the advance guard of the Minnesota delegation, which is not expected to arrive before Tuesday. The delegation meeting will be held on Wednesday morning. The Minnesota delegation was instructed for Towne for vice president, and Mr. Rossing and Mr. O'Brien are enthusiastic in their advocacy of his nomination. Mr. Rossing will place Mr. Towne in nomination.

TWO HUNDRED LOST.

Fearful Havoc of the Fire at the Hoboken Docks.

TWICE AS MANY INJURED,

And Many of These Will Swell the Already Appalling List of Dead.

PROPERTY LOSS OVER NINE MILLION.

Firemen Still Fighting the Flames That Are Consuming Four Big Steamers, and Playing on Smoldering Ruins of a Half Mile of Docks.

New York, July 2.—The fearful havoc to life and property caused by the fire which broke out at the docks of the North German Lloyd company in Hoboken can not be approximated with any degree of certainty. Conservative people who have had experience along the docks are of the opinion that not more than 200 lives are lost. One of the officers of the steamship Bremen said that there were fully 200 visitors on board that vessel when the fire touched there, the majority of them being women. A boat was lowered from the Bremen shortly after the alarm had been given, but the craft capsized as it touched the water and all hands were precipitated into the water, and none of them were saved by those remaining on the vessel. This in itself would indicate that the list of dead may be larger than it was first thought to be.

The property loss can simply be approximated at this time. None of the officials around the docks could give anything like a precise estimate of their losses, and none was prepared to make a statement on this point. A conservative estimate made by a prominent fire underwriter places the entire damage at less than $10,000,000.

The three docks of the North German Lloyd line are total losses, with all their contents, and they are still smoldering, with many streams from fire hose playing continually on the debris. The pier of the Thingvall line is totally wiped away, and an extension which had just been built on the Hamburg-American line's expanse of piers was burned down to the pile tops. The warehouses of Palmer Campbell, which were across the street from the North German Lloyd line docks, suffered greatly, and a number of houses along the street were scorched badly.

The loss on the steamship properties and the other companies is estimated approximately as follows: The steamship Main of the North German Lloyd line cost $1,500,000 outside of the cargo, fitting and stores. The loss is placed at $1,200,000 for the vessel and about $400,000 for the fitting and stores and cargo that was aboard of her. The steamship Bremen of the North German Lloyd line cost $1,250,000, and her fitting and cargo were valued at $300,000. The cargo and stores were entirely consumed and the loss to the vessel proper will amount to at least $100,000.

HORRIBLE SCENES.

The Saale, the steamship which will have the most horrible story of death to unfold when the divers go down in her, cost the North German Lloyd company $1,250,000, and the fittings and cargo were valued at $300,000. The Saale is beached at Ellis Island and still burning. The damage to the vessel proper is placed at $600,000. The damage done to the Kaiser Wilhelm Der Grosse is estimated at $25,000.

The three docks of the North German Lloyd line, which were burned to the water's edge, are estimated to have cost $300,000. The docks were well filled with merchandise just received from abroad, and valued at $350,000. The Thingvall pier, which was entirely consumed, was valued at $50,000, counting the stores which were on it. The Hamburg-American line dock, which had just been completed as an extension to their great pier, and which was destroyed in order to prevent the spread of the flames, was damaged to the extent of $15,000. This was the only loss they sustained, as the steamer Phoenix, contrary to reports, was not even scorched.

The warehouses of Palmer Campbell, houses E, F, G and H, were burned. Mr. Campbell said that he could not give a definite estimate of his losses, but the damaged buildings alone would amount to at least $50,000, and the contents $1,250,000. One lighter, containing 5,000 bags of sugar, was destroyed, the loss being $27,000. Eight barges and 11 canal boats were either burned or sunk with their cargoes. Total valuation, $125,000. The Hoboken shore railroad had a number of cars burned and other property damaged. Loss $7,000. Minor losses on floating property burned at the fire proper or set on fire by burning driftwood will amount to about $20,000.

There were no passengers on board the Saale, and if any bodies are found other than those of the crew they are the remains of visitors, for Saturday was visiting day with the line and it is probable that there were a number on board at the time of the fire. It is estimated that from 300 to 400 persons were injured and taken to the different hospitals in this city, Jersey City and Hoboken. Many are believed to be so seriously injured that they can not recover.

While the fire was still burning the work of relief was begun. Men came to the office of the North German Lloyd line almost naked and with their clothing soaked by the salt water. Men who had been treated by doctors, but who were not sufficiently injured as to be taken to hospitals, also gathered at the office. Every man was given money and clothing and taken to a temporary lodging house by agents of the company.

The sailors from the ships lost absolutely everything they possessed. Women besieged the offices for information in regard to relatives. There were about 70 missing reported at the North German Lloyd office alone. Fully 80 per cent of the sailors of the Germans have no home and no relatives in this country. Most of them lived in Germany.

Sunday morning 19 men, machinists and firemen, were taken off the steamship Bremen, after having been held very close bound, with death staring them in the face, for nearly 12 hours. No loss of life was reported from the Bremen, with the exception of the probability of deaths occurring from the capsizing of the boat already mentioned.

The fire started Saturday evening among cotton bales on the North German Lloyd docks, and spread with amazing rapidity in all directions. Great difficulty was experienced in removing the vessels moored to the docks, the heat being intense.

It is feared that some of the Christian Endeavorers, who were to have sailed from Boston Tuesday for Southampton on the Saale, may have lost their lives. It was said that some of these people had come to this city to inspect the ship, which had been chartered to take 500 of them to England, and that they were on board of her when the flames broke out. Many people, to avoid being roasted to death on the steamships and docks, jumped overboard and were drowned. Searching parties are keeping a close watch along the shores of the North river, Brooklyn and Staten Island.

The fireboat Robert A. Wyck, which arrived on the scene first among the river fire-fighters, presented a picture of horror and ghastliness as she lay at her dock in the East river. The decks were covered with cotton, saturated with the blood of the victims rescued by the brave men aboard. Pieces of human skin clung to the scarlet rags of the victims, and the dreadful experience of the firemen of the day previous brought again to every hand memories which sought to forget the horrible spectacle.

Lieutenant McGinnis said: "I should say there were passengers aboard the Saale. They looked like passengers and surely were not members of the crew. They were locked down in the hold of the vessel as securely as ever a convict was imprisoned in a cell. There was no escape for them after the vessel began to take water. We got about 30 out of there while we were allowed to work from the deck. It was then we witnessed the awful sight of human agony."

"A hundred arms with the flesh torn from them and blackened with smoke, protruded from the small port holes, which were but a foot or less in diameter. If those port holes had been larger, sufficient to admit the passage of a human body, the rescues would have been many more in number than they were. The 0 men we rescued were raving maniacs when we got them aboard. In their delirium they fought each other after they were rescued. They were as black as coal and their burnt and charred flesh peeled off with their clothing."

New York, July 2.—The North German Lloyd Steamship company estimates the loss of life at 200. The company took the crew lists, checked off those members who are in the hospitals or reported safe, and believes the others to be lost. Among the dead are a number of officers. The body of Captain Morrow of the Saale has been found,

Bursts Over the Legations at the Chinese Capital.

GERMAN MINISTER KILLED

And All but Three of the Foreign Buildings Sacked and Burned.

FATE OF OTHER ENVOYS UNKNOWN.

Official Dispatches Regarding the Outbreak Received at Washington and in Europe—Garrison at Tien Tsin Reduced by Assault.

Shanghai, July 2.—The British consul at Chifu telegraphs that Baron Von Ketteler, German minister, was murdered by native troops June 18. Three legations (it is not stated which) were still undestroyed June 23. The American consul here states that Yung Lu telegraphed June 26 that the other ministers were safe that morning, but the situation was desperate and he doubted whether the ministers could hold out 24 hours longer, as he and the empress could not longer give protection.

London, July 2.—Official dispatches received by the consular body at Shanghai confirm in the fullest manner the report of the butchery of Baron Von Ketteler, the German minister, on June 18. The ambassador was riding on Legation street when he was attacked by Chinese troops and Boxers, dragged from his horse and killed. His body was hacked to pieces with swords.

MAP SHOWING RAILWAY AND DISTRICT WHERE BOXERS ARE MOST ACTIVE.

The German legation and six other buildings were burned, and a number of servants of the legations were killed and their bodies thrown into the flames.

Official confirmation of this ghastly business has created the utmost consternation among the consuls general of the powers, who express fears that war will at once be declared against the Peking government. The consuls entertain little hope that any foreigners are left alive in the capital.

There were 100 foreigners connected with the legations, 50 in the custom house, English and American tourists and others to the number of 150, and nearly 500 legation guards.

Reports Confirmed.

Washington, July 2.—Two important cablegrams were received by Secretary Hay from United States Consul Goodnow at Shanghai. The text is withheld, but the consul states in substance as follows: "It is rumored in Shanghai that the German minister to Peking, Baron Von Ketteler, was killed at Peking on June 18. On June 23 three of the legation buildings were still standing, the others having been burned. On June 26 a dispatch was received at Shanghai from Yung Lu (believed to be the viceroy of the province of Chile, where the principal troubles have occurred), stating that the other ministers were safe. Dispatches to Shanghai from different sources indicate that Prince Tuan, father of the heir apparent, seems to be absolutely in control at Peking, and that his attitude is the worst possible, and most hostile to foreigners."

The Portsmouth Blade remarks that "money in the United States is cheaper than anywhere else in the world." And yet Republicans frightened a great many timid people in the last campaign with their cry against "cheap money."

Up to June 15, "benevolent assimilation" of Filipinos has cost the lives of 2,117 American soldiers, and the list of wounded was 2,185, says the Georgetown News-Democrat. That's a bloody record for Hanna and McKinley to carry through the coming campaign.

Louisville Republicans believe that Taylor will return to Kentucky, basing their belief on the hope that Hon. John Yerkes will be elected Governor, in which event Taylor would expect a pardon. If Taylor is innocent, as they so vehemently claim, what does he want with a pardon?

The campaign in this district will be "dead easy" if the Republicans will do their duty—and they will. Vote yourself, see that your neighbor votes, and, above all, see that the votes are counted as they are cast.—Public Ledger.

Well, your very great and particular friend Judge Samuel Pugh doesn't seem to think so, as he has given out that he hopes "to pull through with the aid of Democratic friends."

A DISPATCH from Washington states that the public is to be kept in ignorance as to the extent of Neeley's and Rathbone's postal frauds down in Cuba. "If I am arrested," wrote Major Rathbone, from Cuba, not long ago to Perry S. Heath, First Assistant Postmaster General, "or if I am molested I will down the columns of the temple, and, although I perish in the ruins, there will be others who will go down with me." This may and probably does account for the secrecy of the administration crowd as to these frauds.

KEHOE THE MAN

Who Will Give Pugh the Race of His Life.
The Congressional Contest.

Big Sandy News: "Hon. James N. Kehoe has risen from a humble station to a prominent leadership entirely by his own efforts. He has both the energy and ability of which leaders are made. The Democrats have never made a better selection for Congress."

Greenup Democrat: "The nomination of Hon. James N. Kehoe, of Mason County, as the Democratic candidate for Congress is one that must appeal strongly to the people of the district, the great common people, as Abraham Lincoln called them—because from poverty to leadership. Here is a young man that began life with far less advantages than most of us enjoyed. Without friends or family influence he has fought his way to the front place in the bar of Mason County. Without friends except those made by his sterling worth, he has secured a commanding position in the politics of the district. Kehoe's nomination was the proper one for the party to make, it is one which assures us of success in the coming fight. Democrats of Greenup County, it is your duty to work for your nominee and your party. It is your duty to see that every man of our political faith takes the proper interest in the fight we have to make. We must not deceive ourselves with the idea that the fight will be easy. We must not imagine that it is already won. It will require the hardest kind of a fight and the strongest effort to win and now is the time to organize."

Dover News: "Mr. Pugh is already strengthening his batteries and preparing for his fight against the champion of the people, Jas. N. Kehoe. It will be the fight of his life against the cleanest cut, simon pure Democrat on top of earth. All of Mr. Pugh's money, backed by the McKinley administration, cannot prevail against him, for lo, the people are with him, and when the people are with him, who can prevail against him? Not Pugh."

Cynthiana Democrat: "James N. Kehoe, the Democratic nominee for Congress from this district, was born and raised in Maysville. He is eminently a self-made man. He began life as a printer, but worked himself steadily upwards. He studied law, and was admitted to practice at the age of twenty-six. He is a vigorous speaker, and during the campaign last fall he made many speeches for the Democratic State ticket. For the past twelve years he has been Master Commissioner of the Mason Circuit Court, and this is the only office he has ever held. Mr. Kehoe is married, and is the father of four children. His residence is one of the handsomest about Maysville. He is only thirty-eight years old, a hard worker and a student, and when elected will reflect credit on the district."

The rise at headwaters floated the Virginia and she is due down this evening. The Pearce and Bay will also pass down this evening.

A stage of about seven feet was expected at Pittsburgh Sunday, and if the rise came up to expectations a shipment of coal was started. The rise will allow all the towboats tied up along the shore to reach home with empties.

The Barretts launched another square-end deck barge at Levanna, Saturday. It measures 100 feet by thirty, and will carry 600 tons. Captain Barrett has sheeted all his new barges with steel similar to the manner in which steamboats are sheeted. The new barge is named Florence Barrett.

Captain Phister's trim little vessel, the Newt. Cooper, left at 2 p. m. Saturday for Evansville, towing a big sanddigger. The digger had floated this far from Pittsburgh, but her owners got a move on here and engaged the Cooper to take them the rest of the way. Captain Ben Campbell is in charge of the Cooper. It will take about eight days to make the run there and back.

Big Sandy News: "When Col. Northup was before the Rivers and Harbors Committee at Washington telling them of the hidden wealth of the Big Sandy valley he made the statement that if two barges of coal should be sent out of the river every hour it would require over 300 years to exhaust the quantity that is already known to exist within reach of the river. Some members of the committee thought Mr. Northup was probably off in his figures, but he stood his ground and calmly referred them to the report of Prof. Brown, the expert employed by the U. S. Engineer Department to investigate our resources. The report was at hand and it did not take long to convince them that these figures were correct."

DURING the first six months of this year 1,654 miles of new railroad track has been laid on 135 lines in forty-one States and Territories in the United States, against 1,360 miles for the same period of last year. It has been estimated that 5,000 miles will be laid during the year, as against 4,588 miles last year. Texas leads the list with 164½ miles, and Iowa is second with 144½ miles. To-day there is completed 193,000 miles of railroad in the United States, and at the end of the year it is likely that the grand total will be more than 196,000 miles.

Judge Bullock has been desirous of adopting this system for some time, and the ability and experience of Mr. Pearce will enable him to see it put into execution with the beginning of the fiscal year."

CITY TAXES.

On and after July 1st, 1900, City taxes will be in my hands for collection.

JAMES W. FITZGERALD,

CITY TREASURER.

For Sale or Rent.

The house now occupied by R. H. Pollitt on Sutton street is for sale or rent. Also the White, Judd & Co. business house occupied by C. H. White on Second street is for rent. C. H. White is determined to close out. Apply to
C. H. WHITE.

SAY!
WHAT?
WHITE, JUDD & CO. SELLING OUT!
I CAN'T BELIEVE IT.

It's true all the same. G. S. Judd sold out to Mr. White and went West. J. F. Martin then sold out to Mr. White and now Mr. White sees that he cannot see well enough to conduct the business, so he has decided to close out his large and elegant stock of Furniture at cost. No 10 per cent. cut plan but at COST.

IF YOU NEED ANYTHING IN THE FURNITURE LINE NOW IS THE TIME TO SECURE IT CHEAP.

And if you don't need it just now it will pay you to buy at the cut prices for future use. Come and look through our stock and be convinced.

C. H. WHITE.

Mr. White went to Cincinnati a few days ago to have his eyes operated on, but his physician concluded it was not advisable at present, so he has decided to sell out and quit business.

He will sell any or all the houses he owns in Maysville—some at cost and some below cost, and on from one to five years' time, deferred payments to bear 5 per cent. interest.

THE NEW CATHOLIC CHURCH.

Work on the Foundation and Also on the Pastoral Residence to Begin at an Early Day.

At a mass meeting of the members of St. Patrick's Church Sunday the Building Committee reported the progress they had made, all of which was approved by the members of the congregation.

The committee will make arrangements immediately for the construction of the pastoral residence and the building of the foundation for the new church. Plans and specifications have been submitted by one architect, but the committee expects several others.

The new church will front on Third street, just east of Limestone, and will extend back to the old church. The pastor's residence will be on Third, east of the church.

The committee hope to erect the church and residence at a total cost not to exceed $30,000.

The Father Matthews Total Abstinence Society has donated $100 to the building of the new church.

JUNE WEATHER RECORD.

It Was a Rainy Month, But the Total Precipitation Was Not Very Heavy.

The weather last month was not very favorable for harvesting wheat, and the crop had to be cut "between showers." Rain fell on twenty-one of the thirty days, but on several days it was very light, and the total precipitation for the month amounted to only 2.20 inches. In some sections of the county, the precipitation was much heavier, as the rain occurred largely as local showers.

The highest temperature during the month was 94°, that point being reached on two days,—the 26th and 29th. The lowest was 49° on the 4th. The mean for the month was 74.6°.

As a result of the continued warm rainy weather the last ten days of the month, the wheat in some sections is reported molding in the shock.

G. W. ROGERS & Co.'s whisky is guaranteed to be strictly pure.

THE NEW. Cooper, Captain Phister's little vessel that let for Evansville Saturday, met with a slight accident near Ripley by the breaking of some of her machinery, and had to go to the bank for repairs.

Brave Men Fall

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there is no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents at J. J. Wood & Son's drug store. Every bottle guaranteed.

MR. CHAS. E. BIGGERS sold a fine bay combined mare to Mr. Wm. McClelland for $225.

MES. POLLITT has moved her boarding house to the building opposite Redmond's grocery, Neptune Hall.

THAT staunch Democratic journal, the Paris Democrat, completed its first year with its Saturday issue. Editor Remington is giving his readers one of the very best weekly papers published in Kentucky.

MISS VALENTINE entertained quite a number of her friends Saturday evening, among them Misses Sue and Mona McNutt, Mr. Clarence Calvert and Mr. Ed. Tucker, of Orangeburg. Messrs. McNutt and Forest Lee made the music.

JUDGE JAMES P. TARVIN announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Governor in a speech at Covington Saturday night. He advocates a fair and nonpartisan election law, and declared that a return to the viva voce system of voting was impossible.

We are positively offering goods at prices that I will "guarantee" lower than can be had anywhere. Everything at "sacrifice price." We have two reasons for offering goods at these low prices. We don't want the expense of moving goods, secondly, we will have to raise a large amount of money. Now is your chance for bargains. MURPHY, the jeweler.

THE meeting on Sutton street Saturday night to organize a "Bill Taylor Club" must have been a sore disappointment to the faithful. Only about forty names were enrolled. Committees were appointed, however, to secure new members and the election of officers was postponed until a future meeting. For some reason it was decided to make the club a Bill Taylor and John Yerkes club.

DIED SUNDAY.

Mr. John Melvin Walton, of Germantown, Passes Away, After an Illness of Two Years.

Mr. John Melvin Walton died Sunday at his home near Germantown, aged about seventy-seven years. He had been confined to his bed for two years as a result of general debility resulting from old age.

Mr. Walton was one of the prominent citizens of that section of the county. He was married twice. His first wife was a Miss Owens, a sister of Mr. James C. Owens of this city. His last wife, who survives him, was Miss Carrie Moss, a sister of Mrs. Anna Threlkeld, of this city. By his first marriage, he leaves two daughters,—Mrs. W. O. Pollock, of Columbus, Ga., and Mrs. Annie Kiger, of McLean, Ill.,—and by his second marriage, three children,—Mr. Moss Walton, of Cincinnati, and Mr. Simeon G. and Miss Mary Walton, of Germantown.

The funeral arrangements have not been announced.

GETS A NICE POSITION.

Mr. John P. Bergen Appointed Vault, Safe and Lock Expert.

Mr. John P. Bergen, the expert workman sent here some time ago by the MacNeale & Urban Safe and Lock Company to move the First National Bank's vault and safe into the new quarters at the Glacook Building, left for his home at Hamilton, O., Sunday morning, having completed the work. He had quite a job of it, but the work was done with neatness and dispatch.

This will probably be the last job of this kind Mr. Bergen will do for some time, as he has received the appointment of Vault, Safe and Lock Expert in the office of the Supervising Architect at Washington City. The position is under the protection of the Civil Service. Mr. Bergen stood the examination on June 2nd, and received his appointment on June 13th. The position pays $1,400 a year.

FOR THE FARMER.

With Favorable Weather the Threshers Will Begin Work This Week.

The threshers will soon be at work, if the weather continues at all favorable.

O. H. P. Cooley, of Manchester, picked over 100 gallons of strawberries this year from a patch of 500 plants of last year's setting.

Cogar & Davis have during the past three weeks bought 100,000 bushels of wheat, delivered in Danville, Burgin and Nicholasville, at from 65 to 80 cents.—Danville Advocate.

One of the advantages in keeping sheep is that they do not need an expensive building as a shelter. A shed open on one side suits them as well as a tight barn, or even better, as they require considerable ventilation. But it should be arranged that both rain and snow can be kept out of it, for the sheep should not get their fleece wet in cold weather. It takes so long to get it dry again, and the whole body gets chilled, reducing vitality, even if they do not take colds. Keep the inside of the shed dry and well littered with clean straw, and sheep will be healthy and thrive well, even on moderate feed.

The revival services at the Aberdeen Baptist Church will continue this week. Preaching each evening by Rev. Dr. J. W. Porter. There have been four additions—three on Saturday night. Two were baptized Sunday. Interest in the services is increasing.

ALBERT BELL, colored, was fined $108 by Judge Wadsworth Saturday for giving whisky to Bessie Haley and Mary Haley, two young negro girls, $50 and costs in each case.

Furniture Moving Extraordinary.

The old, wealthy and big Robert Mitchell Furniture Company, Cincinnati, which have been on Fourth street, between Vine and Race streets, 10, these many years, are going to move into even more commodious quarters. It is cheaper to cut the price on furniture than to move it, so the enormous stock is being offered at extraordinary figures, according to the advertisement in this issue.

The Index, of Willow Springs, Mo., has the following in reference to a former resident of Mason County: "Our friend and fellow townsman J. B. Thomas has been appointed one of the Assistant Sergeants-at-Arms of the Democratic National convention at Kansas City from Missouri by Sergeant-at-Arms John I. Martin. This is a just recognition of a good working Democrat who never asked for an office at the hands of the party, and John's many friends in this part of the State will be pleased to learn that such an honor has been conferred upon him. Mr. Martin could not have made a better appointment in this part of the State."

Mr. Thomas is a brother of Mr. Jacob Thomas, Mrs. Dr. Smoot and Mrs. Pearce Browning of this city.

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine; and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, bronchitis, hoarseness and all diseases of the throat, chest and lungs are surely cured by it. Call on J. J. Wood & Son, druggists, and get a trial bottle free. Regular size 50 cents and $1. Every bottle guaranteed, or price refunded.

A TWO-YEAR OLD child of Mr. and Mrs. Hollan died near Washington Saturday.

A SON of Dr. Outten, of Plumville, was stabbed in the arm and side in a cutting scrape with some other parties. He was on his way home from church when the trouble took place.

A DAUGHTER of Mr. Rezin Downing was injured Sunday in a runaway accident at the home of the family near Washington. A horse hitched to her buggy ran off, throwing her out and she was unconscious for a time.

The Cincinnati Leaf Tobacco Warehouse Company, in its circular for the week, has the following:

The offerings of good to fine redried leaf were rather more liberal, and the strong, active market for this sort of tobacco, noted last week, was well sustained. A greater number of hogheads sold at outside quotations than have been noted for several weeks.

The market for filler leaf shows most strength for brights; the good, clear cherry red is also wanted. The medium to good red fillers meet a firm market, with prices unchanged. Short, rough grades and tips showing a green tinge were at times irregular in the bidding. The market for these grades, as a whole, should be quoted as steady and unchanged. Clean, leafy lugs are active and firm and the bidding strong, as heretofore. Good trashes continue active, the market firm and prices unchanged. Common mixed trashes and those in bad order appear to be lower. The majority of redryers are carrying as much tobacco of this class as they desire, consequently the competition for soft order tobacco is confined to a smaller circle of buyers than were bidding for winter order tobacco some weeks ago.

Wednesday will fall on July 4, on which day no sales will be made in this market. We advise a liberal offering on Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, and would especially urge supplying the market with an adequate offering of tobacco on the first and last sales days of the coming week.
